Your privacy is very important. This privacy policy statement provides information about this website and your personal information.

Privacy policy statement

This privacy statement is adapted from, and based on a Freenetlaw template supplied by Employment Law Contracts.

Personal information collection

This website may collect and use the following kinds of personal information:

- Information about your use of this website; the pages you have viewed and items you may download from this specific website only.
- Information identifying the country you have accessed this website from, and where or if you were referred to our website from a search engine or link on another website, or if you entered our website address directly to visit us.
- We do not request, record or use, nor have automatic access to your name or e-mail address unless you provide it to us in order to receive a follow-up response from us or voluntarily subscribe to our email list.
- Any information collected directly by us regarding your visit to our website will not be sold or bartered for any form of marketing or commercial activity.

Using personal information

We may use your personal information to:

- Administer our website.
- Improve the content and functionality of our website.
- Ensure the efficiency of our website to deliver information.

Where we disclose your personal information to our agents or subcontractors for these purposes, the agent or sub-contractor in question will be obligated to use that personal information in accordance with the terms of this privacy statement. In addition to the disclosures reasonably necessary for the purposes identified above, we may disclose your personal information to the extent that it is required to do so by law, in connection with any legal proceedings or prospective legal proceedings, to accredited law enforcement agencies, and in order to establish, exercise or defend legal rights.

Securing your data

We will take reasonable technical and organizational precautions to prevent the loss, misuse or alteration of your personal information.

Cross-border data transfers

Information that we collect may be stored and processed in and transferred between Canada, the United Kingdom and the United States of America in which we operate to enable the use of the information in accordance with this privacy policy. You agree to such cross-border transfers of personal information by your use of this website.

Updating this Statement

We may update this privacy policy by posting a new version on this website. You should check this page occasionally to ensure you are familiar with any changes.

Other websites

This website contains links to other websites. We are not responsible for the privacy policies, practices or actions of any third party or third party website.
